The edition WE ARE THE PRICE by Ukrainian artist Nikita KADAN (born in Kyiv in 1982) is on sale at Christine König Galerie, Vienna, to support renovating a shelter + school in the transcarpatian mountains near the Slovakian border for families who lost their homes and are disoriented about their future. By raising funds, curator and initiator Volodymyr KADYGROB together with Peker & Partners Architects will provide a safe place for living, mentoring programs and support for up to 40 children.

Nikita KADAN is convinced that due to the visibility of artworks by Ukrainian artists across the world, Ukrainian lives can be saved. Simple messages like STOP WAR and CLOSE THE SKY were already screenprinted by Nikita KADAN and distributed by Dan PERJOVSCHI, Robert BAJENARU and Cazul101 projectspace in Bucharest.
